It is the quickest growing and earliest maturing of the Velvet Beans, and is well adapted for growing in districts farther North than Velvet Beans ordinarily have been grown.

seeds. Seeds of the best quality often fail to germinate by rea-son of improper planting, weather conditions, etc.; in fact most failures are from disregard of necessary conditions, and since these conditions are so varied and so far beyond our control, it is impracticable for us to in any way guar-antee crop results, and while we exercise every care in rea-son, we give no warranty, express or implied, as to descrip-tion, quality, productiveness or any other matter of any seeds, and will not be in any way responsible for the crop. If the purchaser does not accept the goods on these terms, they are at once to be returned. Market Gardeners, or other large planters, requiring larger quantities of seeds than are here offered, are invited to write us for Special Prices, and must be sure to name varieties and quantities they will want.

OSCEOLA FLINT CORN

White Prolific—Flinty, Shuck covers ear entirely. Its early maturity adapts it particularly well for late planting. Unlike many common corns that are of a soft and spongy nature Osceola Flint is hard and flinty. It is a large yielder and as near weevil proof as any variety yet introduced. We have planted this variety in Florida, it gave excellent results. See price above.

(No. 349) SMALL SPANISH PEANUTS—In addition to their value for growing for the nuts, these are very largely used as a forage and fattening crop for hogs and other stock. They are early to mature, very productive and, in the South, where they can be planted, two crops can be made in a year, the tops making a hay crop and the nuts a grain crop. In harvesting, the nuts hang to the vine, and the tops and nuts are fed together to hogs, cows and horses as a whole grain ration. These and Chufas are two of the best crops in the South for fattening hogs, and no Southern farm, where stock is raised, should be without them. The North Carolina Runner and Small Spanish are planted for The North Carolina Runner and Small Spanish are planted for hog feed. 4.75 4.90 5.00 1.35 SORGHUM Sorghum as a forage crop is considered one fo the best staple crops by the Southern Farmer. As a green food it has no equal as it can be cut two or three times during the season and stands the dry weather much better than most of the summer crops. For Florida and Georgia we recommend the Early Amber Sorg-hum as it is much earlier than the other varieties and gives a much heavier forage.

SO

SORGHUM AND COW PEAS We strongly urge our customers to make liberal seeding of Sorghum and Cow Peas as this makes a most nutritious Hay; the Sorghum will hold the Cow Peas up and make it much easier to cut, while the Sorghum in this way will not grow to such an extent to become tough and stalky. The crop should be cut when the Sorghum is just heading out, regardless of the condition of the Cow Peas. Sow at the rate of one bushel Cow Peas and a peck of Sorghum to the acre.
